Barney was supposed to have met his wife (Elizabeth Frye?) when he fled to Canada and the time of the Indian raids in the Mohawk Valley.

The name Sutliffe was spelled Sutcliffe in England. The "c" from New England records by the 1670's.

ABRAHAM SUTCLIFFE SR. was said to have arrived Plymouth MA about 1623, and shortly after settled at Scituate where he died. ABRAHAM SUTCLIFFE JR. took the oath in 1656; and in 1657 became constable of Scituate. His three known sons were born in Scituate.

NATHANIEL SUTLIFFE was the youngest of these sons. He left home early in life; went to Dedham in 1660 when he acquired property, paying his county rate 10 Jul 1661. He moved to Medfield 1663 where the record shows that in that year, he and John Bullard sawed 450 feet of lumber to be used to enlarge the town meeting house. The work was done by hand "at a saw pit." He married Hannah Plympton, daughter of John and Jane (Dammin) Plympton 31 Jan 1665. He later moved with John Plympton to Deerfield MA c.1671 where the record shows that Nathaniel bought rights to pasture six cows and one sheep on the town commons. In 1676 he was killed by Indians while serving under Captain Turner during the Indian uprising known as King Phillip's War.

It is said that Captain Turner's company had defeated and routed the Indians at Pesheomsaket Falls and were closely following them as they retreated. Indian prisoners reported that a large number of fresh Indians were coming to the assistance of the beaten ones; and as a result, the colonists began to retire. At that point the Indian attack was renewed and the retreating soldiers scattered, the more easily overtaken and killed by the savages.

Hannah (Plympton) Sutliffe remarried Samuel Harrington c.1668, and they lived in Hadfield briefly before moving on to Branford, CT., where she died after 3 Oct 1651 when Mehitable, her second child by Samuel Harrington was born and before 27 Jul 1693 when Samauel Harrington married (3rd) Hannah Barnes. (Hannah Barnes was probably Hannah Linsley dau. of John Linsley, another ancestor of both Frank Osborn and Mary Belle Haynes). Samuel and Hannah (Plympton Sutliffe) Harrington had two children Samuel, b. c.1679 and Mehitable b. 1681. They moved to Branford about 1680.

A grant of land was made by the town to the children of Nathaniel Sutliffe Sr. for his services in the Indian war. Nathaniel Sutliffe Jr. and John Sutliffe, sons of Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton)Sutliffe were raised by Sutliffe relatives in Rehoboth, MA, moving finally to CT where they were founders of Durham CT c. 1700. Nathaniel Jr. became a member of the Branford Church in 1704. The descendants of these sons are well documented in a number of genealogies.

HANNAH SUTLIFFE, daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton) Sutliffe married Thomas Whedon IV 1 Oct 1684 in Branford, CT.

JOHN PLYMPTON was indentured to Dr. George Alcocke, apparently to pay his passage to New England. He was named in Dr. Alcocke's will in Roxbury, MA 22 Jan 1641, which allowed John to buy the remaining time of his indenture for 5 pounds.

One genealogy says John bought two acres of woodland at Dedham, MA. 20 Mar 1642. Dedham records show that he was received in the Dedham church 20 Jan 1643, which implies a one year's residency. He took the oath as a freeman 10 May 1643, as John "Plunton." The same year, he joined the Incorporated Artillery Company at Boston, an organization which entitles descendants to membership in The Ancient and Honorary Artillery Company. (listed 17th on the enlistment for that year in a history of the organization.)

He married Jane Dammin 13 Mar 1644. (Gen.& Hist.Notes of the Plym.Fam., citing Ded.Vital Records)
Jane Dammin came to New England with her mother Abigail and her step father John Eaton in 1635 on the ship Elizabeth & Ann. Abigail's age at that time was 35; and Jane's was 9 years. John, brother of Jane, and two young Eaton children completed the party. John Eaton left 5 pounds to John Plympton of Medfield in his Will dated 9 Feb 1658. Jane was received in the Dedham church 4 Dec 1640.

John and Jane Plympton's first four children are listed in Dedham church records. They moved to Medfield,MA sometime in 1652 where he appears on a tax list and attended a town meeting in Decemember of that year. The Plympton's other eight children are listed in Savage, Vol.III and other genealogies. It appears that at least five of them died very young. A sixth, Jonathan, was killed by Indians in King Phillip's War at age 18 yrs.

Jane and John lived in Medfield from 1652 until c.1671. Medfield records show that he was given permission to cut down trees along the brook to use about his house. Nathaniel Sutliffe entered the lives of the Plymptons in Medfield about 1661. Nathaniel later in 1665 married Hannah, daughter of John and Jane Plympton. Both Nathaniel Sutliffe and John Plympton are on a list of those who contributed to a fund to establish a college. ("John Plympton Senior,...2 bushells of Endian Corn") The new college was later called Harvard. John Plympton was one of two surveyors in Medfield.

In 1671 John Plympton was permitted to buy land in Pocomtuck, provided he would "settle there in his own person." Nathaniel Sutliffe, by then a son-in-law, also purchased land in the area. Both signed a petition in 1672 to change the name to Deerfield. Because trouble with Indians threatened, John Plympton was appointed sergeant and was apparently the chief military officer in charge of defense of the village.

The war with the Indians 1676-77 was called King Phillip's war. Phillip was the name the English settlers gave Metacomet, chief of the Wampanoag Indians. Phillip was the son of Massosoit, a friend of the colonists; and Phillip was also friendly with the settlers, but came to believe that they would cause the destruction of the Indians. He joined an uprising which involved other New England tribes, who were displaced by English settlements.

In September 1675, the Indians attacked and burned part of Deerfield; and Jonathan Plympton, son of John and Jane, was killed with others in a massacre at Bloody Brook Bridge. Deerfield was subsequently abandoned.

On May 19, 1676, the Plympton's son-in-law Nathaniel Sutliffe, husband of Hannah Plympton, was killed with Capt. Turner at the Pesheomsaket Falls.

In 1676, the Indian Phillip was hunted down and killed, and the war with the Indians was thought to be over, although some continued to attack and burn for sometime after that.

In the summer of 1677, John Plympton returned to Deerfield with some others and started to rebuild his house, and replant his crops. In mid-September, Indians reappeared and captured John and the others in the village. They were led off in a forced march northward toward Canada. After a very difficult and frightening two weeks march, John Plympton was killed. According to one account (which is otherwise well documented) John was burned at the stake. Most of the others who were captured were ransomed and returned home safely.

His widow Jane remarried Nicholas Hide in 1679. His daughter Hannah m. Nathaniel Sutliffe; and they were the parents of Hannah Sutliffe who married Thomas Whedon II.

John Linley and family

Sources: Connecticut Linsleys - The Six Johns, by Ray Keyes Linsley
The History of The Linley - Linsley - Linseley Families in America 1639-1924, by John M. Lindly, Vol.II
New England Historical & Genealogical Register (April, date? aft.1953 from references in foot notes.) article: "Identity of Ellen -- Lindley" by Reta Bostwick Perry of Lawrenceville, PA.

John Linley first appears in public records 1 Jul 1644 in New Haven when he took the oath of allegiance. On 3 Dec 1645, a court record shows that he had a brother Francis, who was living with him at the time.

There is a strong possibility that these two are the same as John and Frances Linley, sons of John Linsey of Adelthorpe in Lincolnshire. The will of John Linsey of Althorpe, dated 26 Feb 1638, provides for a wife Ann; sons Richard and Frances (his sons by wife Ann, according to the will) and for sons John Thomas Linsey and daughter Ann. And old Parish Registers show --John Linsey m. Elizabeth Messenger 9 Feb 1614-5; and JOHN, bapt. 9 Apr 1620, together with other children who died. (Researchers infer that Elizabeth, John Sr.'s first wife was the mother of our John and probably died soon after the birth of Thomas.) It is believed that our John may have arrived in New Haven as early as 1639-40; and that his brother Frances probably came later, but before 1644 when the will of John Sr. was proved and his mother Anne reserved the power to "grant Francis, the other executor, when he shall come."

A couple of court records lend some human interest to the story of John Linley. In one, brother Francis had sold a gun to Stephen Medcalfe, which malfunctioned the first time Stephen Medcalfe fired it. "The brich flew out and struck into his eye and wounded him deepe and dangerously into the head."

The case hinged on whether Francis warned Stephen Medcalfe that the "barrell was thin and would not bear a new britch, and that it was crackt on one side from the britch to the touch-hole." John Nash who repaired the gun for Francis testified that he warned Francis that he "would not discharge it for all New-haven, for it would doe some mischeife."

Evidence showed that John Linley had come to Stephen's house, when he thought Stephen was dying, to beg Stephen to clear his brother. The court fined Francis 20L damages.

In a Guilford, CT court record, John was a defendant in a slander suit because he had claimed that some woman of the town and "mischieved his Dogg; and that they would doe it to his Dogg would do it to himselfe and family, so yft he should be afraid to goe out of his house without company, and that he would remove his dwelling for her." The court fined him 5L.

In 1646, John and Francis both drew land in Branford, but neither moved their right away. Francis eventually moved with his famioy to New Jersey; and John lived in Guilford from 1648-1654; after which he lived in Branford until he died. (CT Linsleys cites various N.Haven, Guilford and Branford records.)

John's first wife, Ellen, appears almost surely to have been the daughter of Ralph and Alice (Goldhatch) Dayton, who lived in New Haven 1639-49. They moved at that time to East Hampton, LI where they lived until Ralph died 1658. Ralph Dayton's will leaves bequests "to my sonn Linly's children..."

After Ellen died in Guilford in 1654, John moved to Branford and married Sarah -- Pond, the widow of Samuel Pond.

JOHN JOHNSON--may have come with the Winthrop Fleet in 1630 from Herne, Co.Kent, England, bringing wife Margery. He setled in Roxbury, CT. The Woodstock history says Margery was Margery Scudder, daughter of William of Darenth, Kent. She died or was buried 9 Jun 1655. John married (2nd) Grace Negus Fawer, widow of Barnbas Fawer. His will mentions five children, Isaac and Humphrey and 3 others, presumably daughters, all born in England.

John was a constable in Roxbury 1630; was admitted freeman 18 May 1631; was a deputy in the General Court off and on for twenty years. He served as Clerk of the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company 1638-40; surveyor general of arms 1641-59. He received a colonial grant of 300 acres. He died in Roxbury 29 Sep 1659.

CAPT. ISAAC JOHNSON -- was born in England, died 19 Dec 1675 Roxbury. He was made frreman 1635 and was a Deputy to the General Court 1671. Also a member of the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company from 1645, he was it Lieutentant in 1666 and its Captain in 1667. The Woodstock history says he was killed in the Great Swamp Fight while leading his men in the attack on the Narragansett Indian fort, an attack which succeeded and broke the back of Indian resistance in King Philip's War. His will named his wife and the four surviving children. The widow died 13 Aug. 1683.

Philip was the name the colonists gave Metacomet, an Indian chief who came to believe that the increasing number of settlers would cause the destruction of the Indians. He united several tribes and there were many raids and killings and towns burned. He finally fled to his home near Mount Hope, RI where he was hunted down and killed. John Plympton, whose daughter married Thos.Whedon II, was also killed in King Philip's War.

The family of Elizabeth Porter is not known. She apparently had a brother Edward, named in the Woodstock history.

NATHANIEL JOHNSON (Sr.) was one of the original settlers of Woodstock. The history says that his wife Mary Smith was the daughter of Lawrence and Mary Smith of Dorchester, MA and cites Dorchester vital records, p.4; and church records, p. 10.

NATHANIEL JOHNSON (jr.) moved to Branford about 1700; but had married his wife Hannah Hoadley "of Branford" Nov. 1690. His wife was Hannah Hoadley.

HANNAH HOADLEY, was the daughter of William Hoadley, an early settler in Branford, one of the "covenant planters" 1667. He was "of Saybrook" 1663. His first wife Mary --, the mother of his children died 12 May 1703; and he remarried Ruth Bowers, widow of John Frisbie, and daughter of John Bowers. William Hoadley's children are listed in Savage, including Hannah "m. Nathaniel Johnson." William Hoadley wrote his name "Hoadle."

From Branford deeds concerning the Linsley family, it appears that William Hoadley was a neighbor of the Linsleys, Roses, Swains, and Whedons.

William Hoadley was a member of the Branford group: Whedons, Roses, Swaines, Pages, Johnsons, Sutliffes, et al. and appears regularly in the records, working with one or the other of these other families.

A deed dated 21 Jun 1669: "John Linslay sould" Robert Foot land which was bounded on the east side by William Hoadley's land

A deed 23 Aug 1671 John Linley and Samuel Pond bought land, some of which was bounded "with a fence on the north, Daniel Swaines meadow on the south, Daniel Rose and on the east, William Hoadley on the west....

And in the same deed, another parcel was described as being bounded on the North by Thomas Whedon's land.

13 March 1682/3 At a Town meeting, John Linly Sr. and William Hoadley and others were granted 4 acres each. And in 1684, following John Linley Sr.'s death, reference was made in probate records of William Hoadley's home lot.

William Hoadley was a town representative from 1678 for several terms. He left a sizeable estate.

Deed 8 May 1683, John Linley sold land to his son John also bounded on the east by William Hoadley's property.

OTHER MARRIAGES

2-Capt.John Warren Jr. (RN=1377)

Robert Jenison took the oath as freeeman May 1645. (MA Colonial Records 2:78-9)

He died sometime after he made a codicil to his will 2 April 1687 and 7 October 1690 when his will was proved. (Middlesex Probate,7:92, cited in the Giles Memorial by John Adams Vinton.) Henry Bond gave his actual date of death in his Genealogy of the Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Watertown, MA. His original will was dated 15 Sept 1683; and included a reference to land that formerly belonged to his brother William, which proves a relationship also claimed by Henry Bond.

Elizabeth and Grace were both identified as wives of Robert Jenison in Watertown vital records.

Town Records refer to a "highway that leades from Robert Jennison down to the River..." (Town Records, 1884, p.5.

Robert Jenison apparently moved from Watertown to Cambridge to Framingham to Sutton. He was a land-owner in Sutton in 1736, and he and Dorothy were members of the church in Sutton. Dorothy was the widow of Thomas Whittemore, whom she married in Boston 1715. (H.Bond) They had a son Thomas, who was baptised 1 Sep 1717. The Martin Family genealogy says that Robert moved on to Auburn with his son Joseph late in life and probably died there.

In my letter of 14 May I discussed the Jennison-Singletary line. Here is another instance of remaining question. It looks as tho' Peter and his wife moved on after the deed of 1801 which they both signed (Worcester Co. deed) and the problem is that they may have lingered en route, stopped over between Worcester Co. and Ontario Co.; that happened, and while a child born midway could have been registered, sometimes such registration was neglected, or it was done in a church - or town - which we've not yet found. Circuit preachers made the rounds in early upstate NY, but unless he gave a certificate or other paper proving he had married, baptized, or buried, these data are lost to us today; some preachers' journal have survived, but all too few.

Singletary - Belknap

Also asked Ruth about the Singletary story; and she sent me almost everything to prove the entire Singletary line, including the story about the father and son in the field attacked by Indians. Alot of stuff from Savage and MA vital records, a couple of histories, etc.

In what she sent was info on the Belknaps...

1. Abraham Belknap and Samuel Belknap on Haverhill list of those taking the Oath of Allegiance 28 Nov 1677. (printed in New Eng.Hist.& Gen.Reg. Vol.IV; Apr.1852, p.203)

2. Samuel Belknap on list of those whose homes were built in Haverhill under a law passed in 1660.

3. Sarah Belknap "dau. of Abraham and Mary" (in a History of Milbury, p.590...Ruth didn't send me all the dope on this history...will ask her about it. May have been in the same volume with the History of Sutton, which included Milbury until 1813....Hist.of Sutton by Revs. Wm.A. Benedict & Hiram A. Tracy. You probably know the book.)...so as you say, it gives us something to work on. You remarked in your last letter that you thought Sarah would turn out to be Abraham's dau. rather than Samuel's as my uncle had it. Think he picked Samuel because Samuel's wife's name was Sarah.)

4. I have a confession to make. I have had an abstract of Amos Singletary's will for a long time...had forgotten about it.

Richard Singletary

Richard's 1585 birthdate is computed from his Haverhill death record--husband of Susanna, d. Oct 25, 1687 ae 102 y. If this is correct, then he was in his fifties before he married and 71 when his youngest son was born. D.W. Hoyt in Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury references "another statement" of his age which would make him born 1599.

He was a proprietor in Salem, MA 1637; in Newbury 1638 and in Salisbury 1639. He took the oath as a freeman 7 Sep 1638, and received land in Salisbury in the "first division", where he appears on the "Original list of ye townsmen of Salisbury in ye booke of Records." Also on that list are ancestors Joseph Moyce (Moys) and Andrew Greely. (Jos.Moyce's daughter married Andrew Greely Sr; their grand-daughter married John Singletary.)

Richard's first wife is known now only as "Goodwife Singletary." There is apparently no record of his second marriage, but Salisbury records list her as Susanna; and Haverhill records say she was Susanna Cooke.

Richard and Susanna lived in Salisbury until about 1653; and appears on a Haverhill list of those whose house lots were laid out after 1650. In 1653, Richard was among those petitioning the court of Haverhill to revoke the sentence of one Robert Pike who protested a law against preaching by non-clergy. Pike declared that such a law was "against the liberty of the country, both civil and ecclesiastical." The court turned a deaf ear on the petitioners, saying that their request was "unjust and unreasonable." They were called to post bond and explain themselves; but the Haverhill petitioners were excused because "they had acknowledged their offence."

Another court case which illustrates the temper of the times occurred in 1662, when Jonathan, oldest son of Richard (and brother of Nathaniel), then aged about 23 testified against John Godfrey who was accused of witchcraft.

Nathaniel Singletary

Nathaniel lived all his life in Haverhill. His home was built after 1660, and in 1662 he was excused from military training because of lameness, while his brothers Amos and Benjamin were both listed among the town militia in 1676. Indians continually threatened all the frontier towns, and Haverhill was no exception. While the town escaped the kind of total devastation suffered by Deerfield and others, there were frequent raids and sneak attacks for many years. As one reference said, the inhabitants went nowhere without means of defense...even to church with a Psalm book in one hand and a gun in the other. It was guerrilla warfare.

On the 13th of August 1689, Nathaniel Singletary and his 14 year old son John were working in a field when Indians fell upon them and shot and killed Nathaniel. When John started to dash away, the Indians overtook him and made him prisoner. They then scalped Nathaniel and began a hasty retreat, taking John with them. John, however, found his chance to elude them and returned to his home that same afternoon.

John Singletary

John was a cooper (maker of barrels). He married Mary Greele (pronounced Gree-lee), grand-daughter of Andrew Greele Sr. and Mary Moyce, as mentioned above; and they settled in Salisbury. Salisbury records show that John bought land there and built a house later known as the old Littlefield House; but the family apparently did not live there long before removing to Framingham. The History of the Town of Sutton reports that he lived in Framingham for about ten years; and in 1721 moved again to Sutton. He remarried, after Mary died. P.E.Haynes noted that John owned land and water rights at the oulet of Singletary Pond, where he ran two mill stones. This is the above named John who escaped the Indians when they killed his father. I hope to look further into Framingham records for more about John.

Amos Singletary

Amos was the first male child born in Sutton, according to both History of Milbury and History of the Town of Sutton. His birth is not listed in the vital records. He apparently lived on his father's land at Singletary Pond. It is said that he never attended school, but was taught at home. During the Revolution, he represented Sutton in the provincial Congress. When the state government was formed, he served four years in the house of representatives, and later spent several years in the state senate. In addition, he was also a justice of the peace.

Amos became a committed Christian through the influence of Mary Curtis, whom he later married. The couple were active members of their church; and through his various activities, Amos became well known and highly respected. The Sutton history tells that once during a period of revival, a citizen of Millbury who manufactured hoes saw Amos approaching. He left his shop and ran to the street, calling, "Oh Squire! Squire! What shall I do to be saved?" Amos barely reined his horse long enough to say to the man, "Put more steel in your hoes!"

Amos Jr., youngest son of Amos and Mary, was the family rebel, causing his parents much difficulty. While he had married and had a large family, it was said that he spent his old age alone and penniless. When he was about eighty years old, he was visited by an old friend, who was delighted when Amos Jr. showed him a well-thumbed Bible and confirmed that, in his old age, he had seen the light.

Amos' will, dated 20 May 1801 and filed 11 Nov 1806, appointed his two sons-in-law Ebenezer Burnap and Solomon Dwinnell executors. He ordered that a pair of gravestones be set up for himself and for Mary. His estate was to be divided equally among the survivors: son Amos Singletary; dau. Greely Allen, dec. for her heirs; Mary Gale; Mehitable Jennison; Hannah Dwinnell; Thankful Burnap; and Lydia Richardson, dec. for her heirs. The children of John Singletary, dec'd. were to have $1 divided among them. Son-in-law Joseph Allen was also mentioned.

Amos' son John married Sarah Jennison, the sister of Peter Jennison, husband of Mehitable. It is interesting to note that Amos Jr. was NOT named an executor of the estate as one might expect, adding some weight to the story that Amos Jr. was the prodigal.

Mehitable Singletary

P. E. Haynes noted about Mehitable that she was "insane" in her later years, and brought about her own demise. Apparently the kindling used to start fires for cooking and heating was piled in the cellar to keep it dry. One cold December evening, she went down into the cellar and built a fire from the kindling on the cellar floor. His notes say she fell into the fire and burned to death, but Eldridge Haynes wrote that she also burned the house down.

The rest of the story, also told by Eldridge, was that Mehitable's daughter Chloe awakened that same night because of what she perceived to be a bright light in the bedroom. There was no source or explanation for the light and it could only be understood after news of her mother's death by fire reached her.

Moyse/Moys

You asked sometime back if I knew where to start looking for Joseph Moyce (my uncle's spelling) I found him in some Salisbury records Ruth sent!

Joseph Moys on list of original settlers of Salisbury with Richard Singletary and Andrew Greele. (Jos. Moys' dau. Mary m. Andrew Greele, according to Uncle) (New Eng.Hist.& Gen.Reg. Vol.III, Jan.1849, p.55)

Jos. Moys on list of those attending a general meeting in Salisb. 3rd 5m 1652 (Same issue NEHGR p. 56)

Jos. Moys on Salisb. tax list 18 5m 1652 (same issue NEHGR, p.57)

That was a stroke of luck.

Sorry to hear about your rain. We had it in July. When we normally have about 2 inches, we had more than nine! In August when our grass usually turns brown, it's a gorgeous healthy green! It has also been unusually cool. Think we've only had two or three days over 90 degrees all summer! That part has been utterly delightful. If it didn't rain, conditions for gardening were perfect...still is, although it looks like it might warm up over next week end. Some of my moldy flowers may have a second chance! Hope your monsoon season will soon be over.

Think this is all for now. Again, thanks for your call.

Sincerely,

Savage ?

Francis Singletary

The British Belknaps--Henry, Richard and Bennet were named by Uncle Pierre Haynes. He referenced the New England Historical and Genealogical Society, April 1914, p.193. Uncle Pierre's reference also named Abraham and some of Abraham's children. Abraham was the earliest Belknap to come to New England, and is therefore easier to document.

Abraham Belknap was in Lynn, MA as early as 1637, but later moved to Salem, MA where he died. Not all of Abraham's children are known: Uncle Pierre named Abraham (2nd) who died young probably in England, Abraham II (again) and Samuel and rightly surmised that Sarah was probably either a daughter or grand-daughter. James Savage named the children listed in the following outline, except for our Sarah who m. Nathaniel Singletary. The History of Millbury identified Sarah as the daughter of Abraham and Mary. (p.590) This is not considered "hard proof"; but it will have to do until other information comes to light.

Abraham II and Samuel Belknap, brothers of Sarah, can be found in some old records. Abraham II appeared on an old Norfolk Co. tax list in 1652. (north-eastern Massachusettes) He evidentally moved to Haverhill c. 1670. Samuel was named in a Jan.1675 list of persons whose houses were built in Haverhill under a law made in 1660. Both Samuel and Abraham appear on a list of those who took the Oath of Allegiance (to the King of England) in Haverhill 22 Nov 1677. Abrham II was among those accused of fencing in common lands in Haverhill 1686.

This line needs more work.

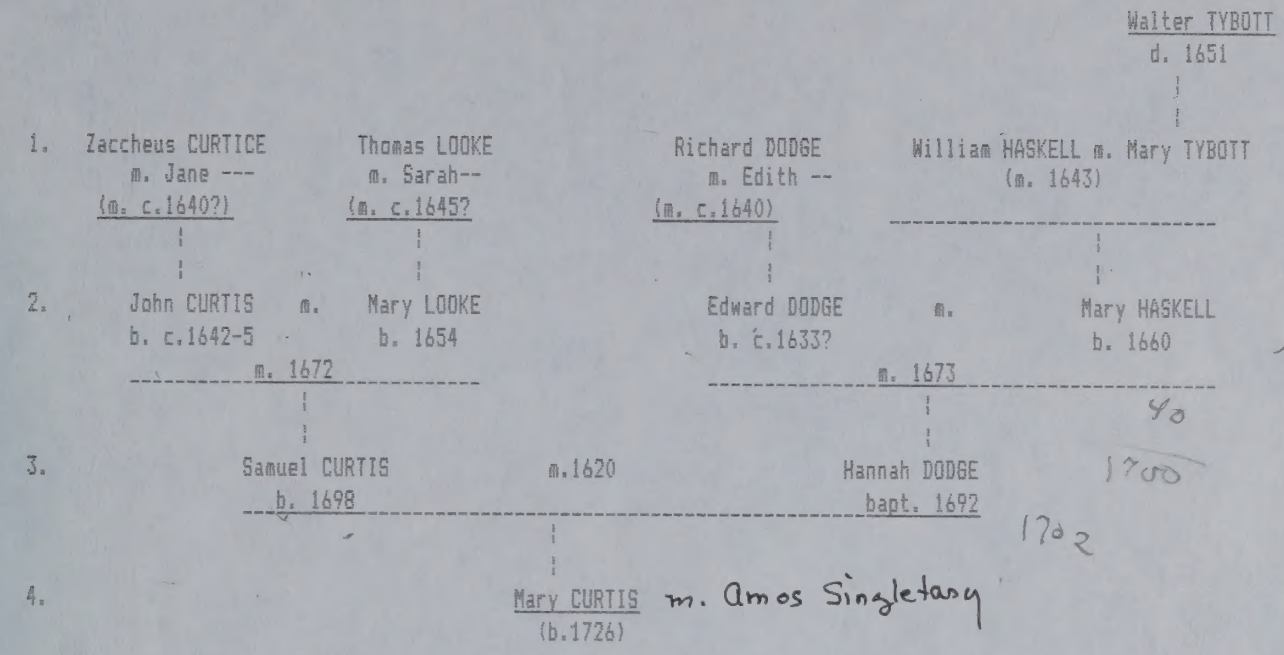
ANCESTORS OF MARY CURTIS



Walter TYBOTT
d. 1651
1. Zaccheus CURTICE m. Jane --- (m. c.1640?)
Thomas LOOKE m. Sarah-- (m. c.1645?
Richard DODGE m. Edith -- (m. c.1640)
William HASKELL m. Mary TYBOTT (m. 1643)
2. John CURTIS b. c.1642-5 m. Mary LOOKE b. 1654 m. 1672
Edward DODGE b. c.1633? m. Mary HASKELL b. 1660 m. 1673
3. Samuel CURTIS b. 1698 m.1620 Hannah DODGE bapt. 1692
4. Mary CURTIS (b.1726) m. Amos Singletary

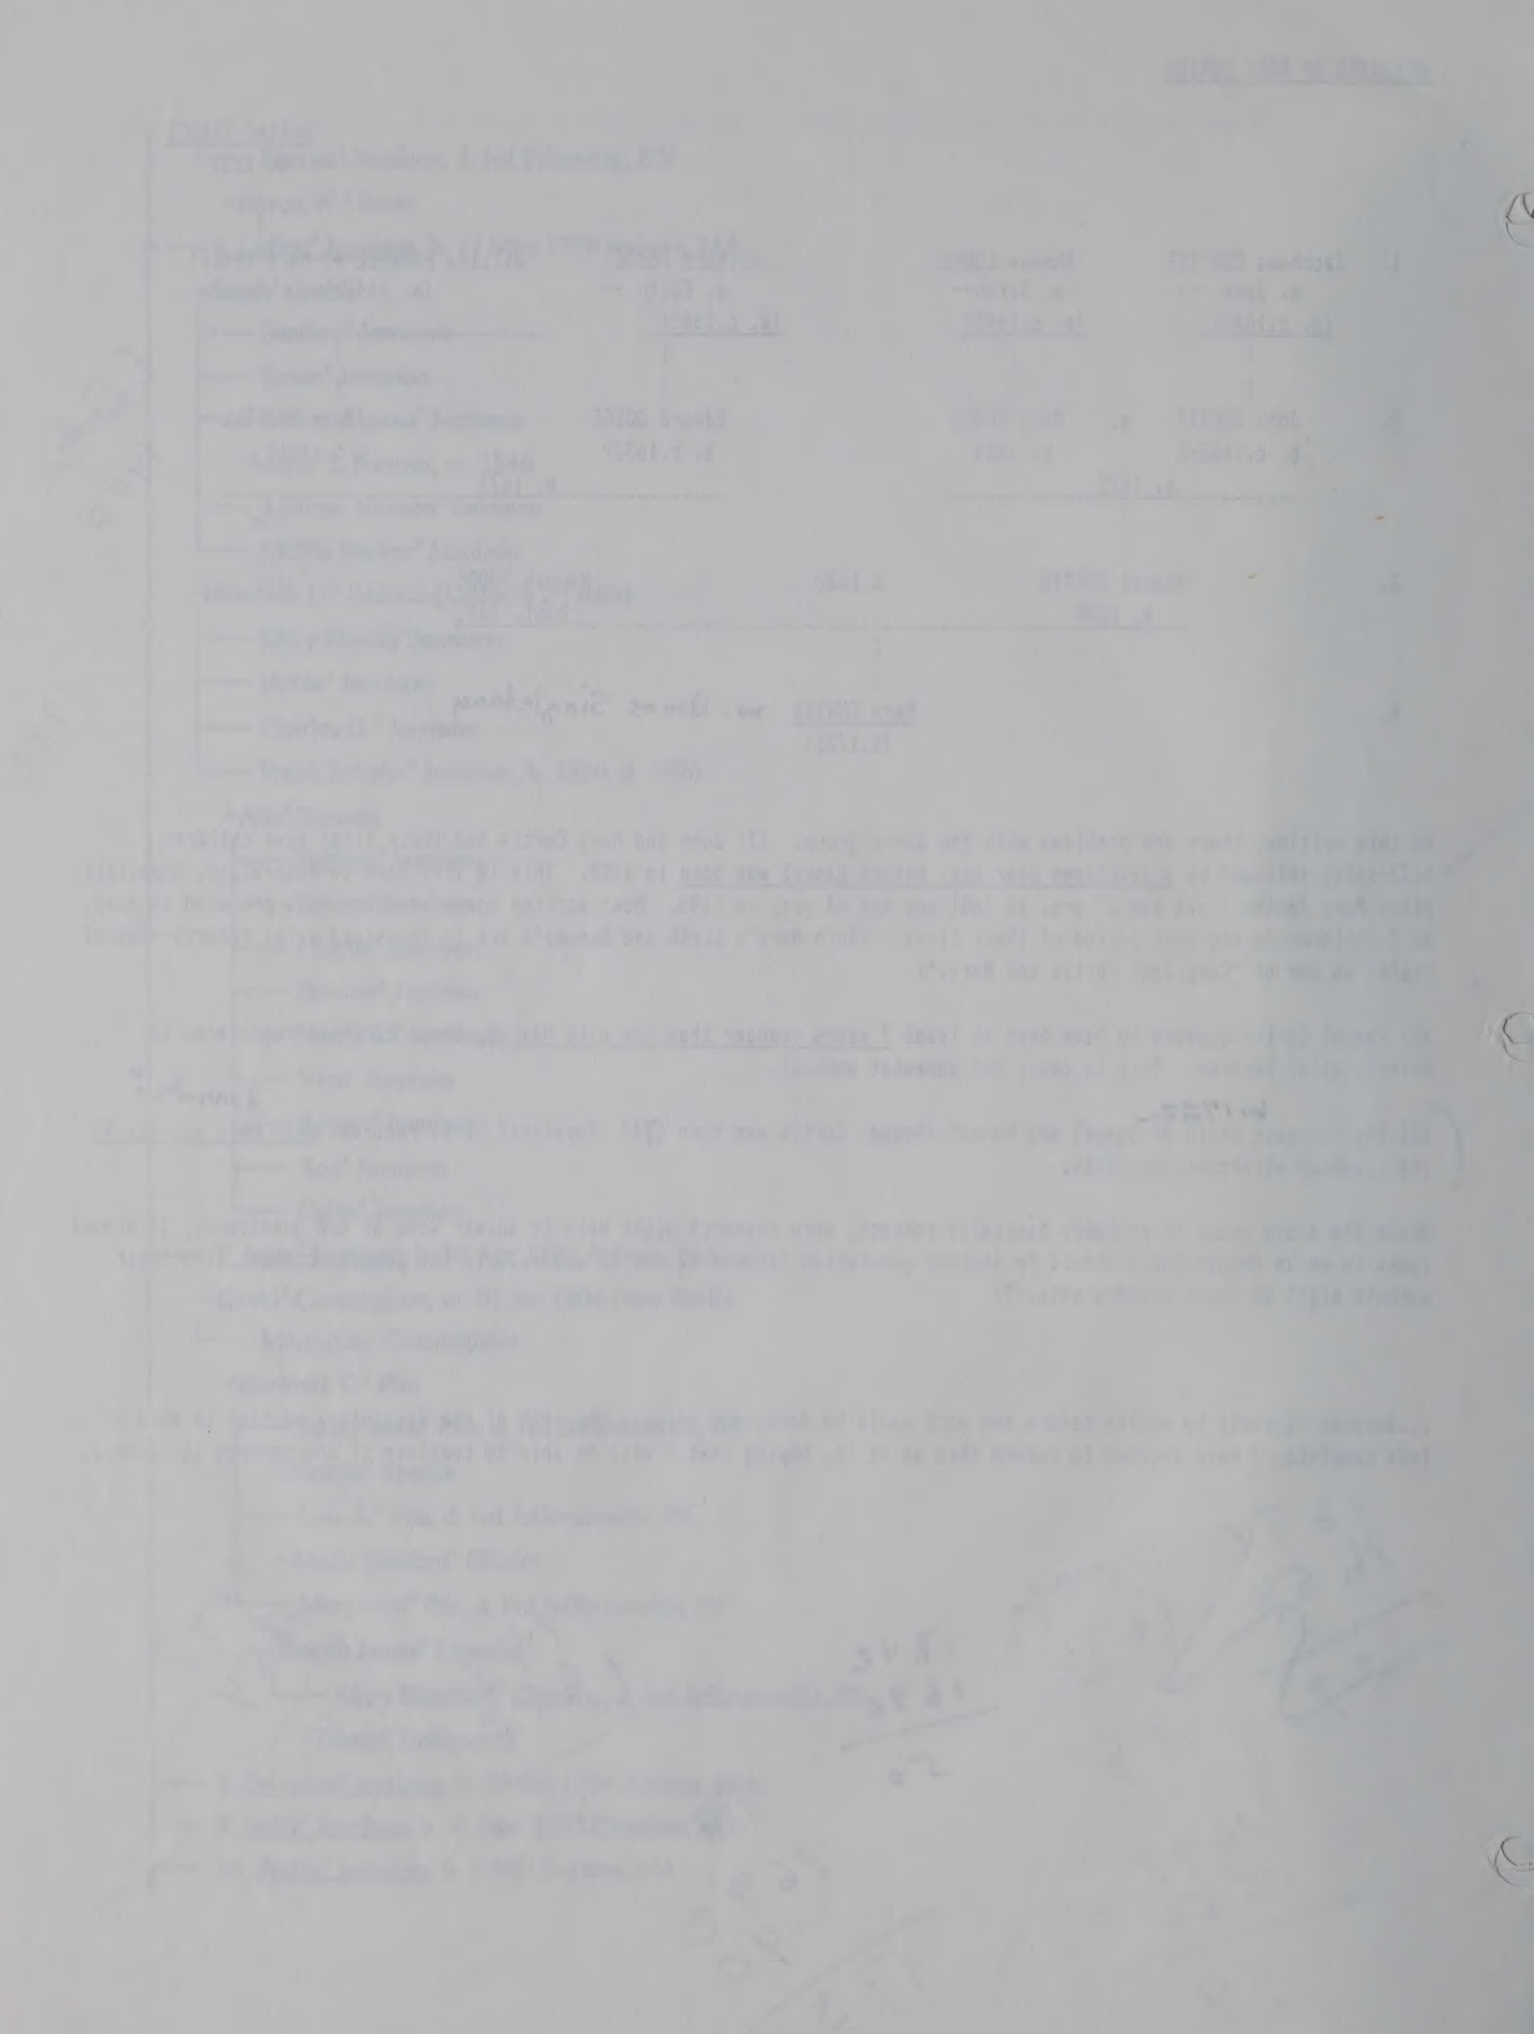
At this writing, there are problems with the above group. (1) John and Mary Curtis had their first five children 1673-1681; followed by a seventeen year gap, before Samuel was born in 1698. This is very hard to understand, especially since Mary (mother) was age 27 yrs. in 1681 and age 44 yrs. in 1698. Most married women in those days produced as many as 7 children during that period of their lives. (Both Mary's birth and Samuel's are in Topsfield vital records--Samuel listed as son of "Corp.John Curtis and Mary.")

(2) Samuel Curtis appears to have been at least 7 years younger than his wife Hannah, whose birth is registered in Beverly vital records. This is okay, but somewhat unusual.

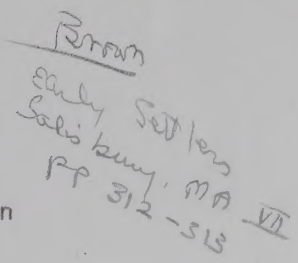
(3) The youngest child of Samuel and Hannah (Dodge) Curtis was born 1742 (Topsfield vital records) when Mary was age 50 yrs....which stretches credulity.

While the above group is probably basically correct, more research might help to answer some of the questions. It almost looks to me as though there should be another generation between #2 and #3 above....ie the people who look like their parents might be their grandparents.(?)

...Because it could be months before the work would be done, and because the rest of the Singletary section is more or less complete, I have decided to record this as it is, hoping that I will be able to complete it and correct it later...



Ancestors of Mary Greely/Greele



1. Joseph Moyce m. Hannah — George Brown m. Christian --

2. Andrew Greely m. Mary Moyce — Deacon Henry Brown m. Abigail

3. Andrew Greely Jr------ m. -------- Sarah Brown

4. Mary Greely m. John Singletary

Andrew "Greele", Joseph Moyce and Richard Singletary all appear on early lists of Salisbury residents and proprietors; all were in Salisbury by early 1641 and attended the first general town meeting 3 Feb 1641. (New England Historical and Genealogical Society Vol.III, Jan. 1849, pp. 55-57.

George Brown (Jr), Sarah's uncle, may have been the first of this family to move to Haverhill, for a George Browne appears on a Haverhill tax list in 1650. Richard Singletary and family were living in Haverhill by May 1651 when Richard's name appeared on a petition, which George Browne also signed.

By 1676, Benjamin Greely (spelled Grealy), brother of Andrew Jr., appeared on a list of soldiers with George Browne and Benjamin Singletary, youngest son of Richard. These men had been mustered because of threatening war with the Indians. This is the same war (King Philip's War) in which other of our ancestors (John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe) lost their lives.

In 1686, Joseph "Greelee", brother of Andrew Jr. and Benjamin Greely was among those accused of fencing in common ground for their own use. Benjamin Singletary and "Lt.Browne" were also accused, as was another ancestor, Abraham Belknap, father-in-law of Nathaniel Singletary. In all fairness, it appears each land owner had originally paid for (or was personally granted) a portion of the land which was held in common by the town. The problem apparently came up, because some wanted to sell their land, including what the town called "common ground." The common ground was used by all for grazing their animals.

Andrew Greely Jr. remained in Salisbury all his life. However, two of his brothers and (Benjamin and Joseph) did live in Haverhill as perhaps also did his wife's uncle. (George Browne?) We can presume that Mary Greely met John Singletary while visiting her relatives in Haverhill.

There is also the question about Samuel Curtis as son of John and Mary Look Curtis. It's possible that John married a second wife who was Samuel's mother; or Samuel could have been an afterthought, or a late accident.

This problem reminds one that while early New England has been very, very well mined, and articles on its early inhabitants have been published in the NEHGS "Register" for pushing 150 years, there are still gaps; witness the articles currently appearing in various genealogical publications about the recent identifications of wives, for example, found through happy happenstance or a deed , and so forth.

Your annotated material of 10 March 1992 re Haskell-Dodge (thank you) is useful. There is no reason to disqualify Mary if she married at age 16; that was not so unusual; 14 would be. I early questionned Savage's assumption re Hannah; a discrepancy could explain her having a child in 1743. I can try to resolve this while working on Samuel Curtis.

Therefore, in spite of all the data available, it is still sometimes necessary to go to the original will and/or deeds for material; this may eventually be true in the search for answers on Curtis. I no longer do far-distant runs to research but I can find someone to do it for you; there are a lot of experienced researchers in Mass., many near Boston and so they have access to the vast records at the NEHGS.

GEORGE HAYNES

Died After Long and Losing Fight.

ENTIRE CITY MOURNS

Although in a measure prepared for the worst by the unfavorable bulletins which had been sent from the bedside for the past several weeks, a gloom was cast over the entire city last evening when at seven o'clock the word quickly circulated that George Eldridge Haynes, for years one of the most prominent and highly respected residents of the city had passed to his reward.

Brave Fight for Life.

Taken seriously ill early in the summer, Mr. Haynes fought bravely for life, and so successful was he that he was later able to not only leave

Brave Fight for Life.

Taken seriously ill early in the summer, Mr. Haynes fought bravely for life, and so successful was he that he was later able to not only leave his bed, but returned to his office where for a short time he carried on his business in the careful manner that had always marked his dealings with the public. A few weeks later, however, he was again stricken, and almost from the first it was realized that his condition was serious. Everything that medical aid could render, was secured in the effort to prolong his life, but all failed and after gradually sinking for the past several days, he slipped peacefully aw ay last evening.

Long and Busy Life.

The deceased was born at Rochester, Lorainne county, Ohio, March 13, 1851. His boyhood was spent on a farm, and at the age of 7 he moved to Kirklin, Ind., with his father. From 1870 to 1876 he taught school in Clinton and Tipton counties during the winter and practiced law in the summer, being admitted to the Clinton county bar in 1874.

On January 1, 1885 he was married to Miss Eva Gibson of Kirklin, and he continued his practice of law there until 1891.

In December of that year he moved with his family to this city and engaged in the law practice and insurance business. In 1906 he moved to St. Louis, Mo., where he remained but a short time, being taken ill there, and during the following year he returned to Elwood. After being here for a short time he went to Gary, taking up the fire insurance business there, but again he was taken ill and a short time later he again returned to Elwood where he and his family remained until his death.

there, and during the following year he returned to Elwood. After being here for a short time he went to Gary, taking up the fire insurance business there, but again he was taken ill and a short time later he again returned to Elwood where he and his family remained until his death.

A Good Man.

Mr. Haynes was a good husband and father, a citizen of whom all Elwood is proud, and he is a man whose loss to the city and community is scarcely less than to the immediate family. He was prominent in politics and was also a man who never neglected an opportunity to help his city in any way possible.

Besides the immediate family consisting of a wife and five children Pierre, Parke, Herman Paul and Mary, the deceased is survived by thre brothers, William Haynes, of Seattle, Allen Haynes of Spokane and Carter Haynes of California, and two sisters, Mary A. Richey, of Washington, D. C., and Helen Wynekoop of Chicago.

Awaiting word from relatives living at a distance, the complete arrangements for the funeral cannot be made before tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles VanNess and daughter Pairl went to Windfall this morning where they will spend the day.

Eldridge Conn

Notes from Hustead Letter dtd. May 18, 1991 -

Nothing at DAR or Nat.Archives on the Jonathan Eldridge and Elisha Eldridge named as Volunteer Minute Men in Dtchs.Co. Aug. 1776

Phone call to Frank J. Doherty of Pleasant Valley NY, compiler of Early Settlers of Beekman Patent. He is now working on a book showing store records in Dutchess Co.

In Dunkin Store, Dover, NY, he found Elisha Eldridge 1790-91; Amos Eldridge, John Eldridge (Elisha's son) and Casey Elderidge (sic) in years 1791-93.

Dover is near Poughkeepsie. Is located in Pawling Precinct, a part of Beekman Precinct until 1769....see maps.

See pp. 539 in his book for Amos and John, son of Elisha, etc. (Think he means Settlers of Beekman Patent.

By 1795 - no Eldridge in this line in the Co.

1810 Census...Elisha Eldridge in Millerton, North East precinct, NY.

Pawling Tax list 1778 - Elisha Eldridge "changed to James" - possibly indicating that James is a son of Elisha. (Millerton is more or less due north of Dover.

Shirley:
From last phone call I arranged for F.D. to send me these Sally Eldridge m. Thomas Southworth, b. 11 July 1772. She supposed to have been b. in Hancock, Ma. [See Southworth 251].

John Eldred and Mary had a son Samuel b. 1710 at Washington, North Kingston. [LDS IGI].

Samuel Eldridge, b. in North Kingston ca. 1710 m. Susanna Casey about 1738-40 [or earlier??]. They had seven children b. between 1740-63. See RIGR 11:283, 286 for them in 1761 in Exeter. Thomas Casey on previous deed.

Their son Henry m. March 1780 [this seems to have skipped a gen.] Elizabeth Tanner in Exeter, RI. [HT 7771 26 Nov. 1962. Samuel supposedly had 7 sons. [prob. Casey was one of them-FJD; but note that Casey Jr. was the one who signed the AofA in Beekman. If Samuel m. by 1730 he could have gr-son b. 1750, which would be adequate time.]

Casey Eldred of Exeter in RIGR vol 12, p. 321. He was a witness to a deed between Benjamin West and his father Peter West. Samuel Eldred [is this the SAMUEL who m. Susanna Casey??] was a boundary on the property. [March 1763]. Mary Eldred m. Benjamin West at Exeter 7 Oct. 1759. MFFG III, 260 claims she may be dau. of William and Abigail (Fish) Eldred but this prob not correct. See RIGR 11:286.

Casey Eldridge took a lease from Henry Beekman 1 May 1770. The three lives were Casey, his son Clark and his dau. Mary. The farm was in the 5th allotment, in lot 10 and was 81 acres and was formerly tenanted by James Smith. [ELP 'C' 104]. It was later assigned to Benjamin Force and in 1785 to David Mosher, later, in 1789, to Joseph Denny. [ELP 'E' 46].

A Clark Eldridge was b. 2 Dec. 1777 at North Kingston, RI to James and Lucy (Gallup) Eldridge. [IGI]. They m. at Stonington, CT 28 March 1765.

Elisha Eldridge took over a lease on a 150 acre farm in lot 10 that William MArtin, his wife Phebe and his dau. Phebe had leased 1 May 1765. Eldridge took it over from James Hulse who had it 21 July 1772 and kept it in 1773 and 1774. Eldridge had it from 1775 through 1776. He sold part to William Clark May 1783 [ELP 'C' 56] and the other to Thomas Briggs. [ELP 'C' 9].

Elisha Eldridge took over the lease on 150 acres in lot 14 that James Morehouse had taken 6 March 1772 from R. R. Livingston. Eldridge took over the farm ca. 1791. [ELP 'E' 91].

The above lease from Margaret Livingston was dated 3 June 1791 and was for the lives of Elisha, his wife Mary and his dau. Mary, aged 6 years. [ELP 'E' 93]. By 1796 John Elliot had posted his note towards rents on this farm and in 1800 he probably took over the farm lease.

Samuel E prob had bros William, Thomas and poss Seth, and Anthony.

Dear Marion,

My head is going in a whirl! Believe you and I should go along with your fine CONN. GEN. She makes sense with dates and places etc.

A. Long talk again with Frank D. and his conclusions now:
" I FINALLY WAS ABLE TO ABSTRACT THE MATERIAL ON CLARK ELDRIDGE from the microfilm reels. On page 10 of the attached you will note that ~~was~~ he was son of Casey Eldridge ~~[illegible]~~ NOT SON OF ELISHA! I would think that CASEY and ELISHA were brothers. A CASEY ELDRIDGE, JR. was in Beekman, perhaps the man who was the father of CLARK."

So this is his conclusion.

I ASKED HIM BOTH OF THE PHONE AND WROTE HIM ALL YOU REQUESTED IN YOUR LAST LETTER BUT IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO FOLLOW THROUGH. SORRY MARION I TRIED BOTH BY WRITING AND PHONE!

B. ENCLOSED WHAT HE SENT FROM HIS COMPUTOR. MARION I HAVE NOT LET HIM KNOW ABOUT YOU SINCE FELT I COULD HANDLE MORE SUCCESSFULLY THROUGH JUST ASKING QUESTIONS AND I SUPPOSE ONE COULD SAY I SHOULD HAVE TOID HIM THAT NOT MY LINES BUT I DID AS I FELT WOULD BE MORE ACCURATE T IS WAY! SO MANY , MANY PHONE CALLS BUT EACH TIME FELT WORTH WHILE!

YOU CAN SEE HIS HAS USED THE LDS IGI(AS I HAD)*

C. Then he asked me to try and help him with his lines; "SAMUEL ELDRIDGE AND SUSANNA CASEY. HENCE THE BOOKS ENCLOSED FOR HIS FILES BUT AM SENDING TO YOU FOR YOUR SCRUTINY AND PLEASE MAIL BACK SO I CAN MAIL OUT TO HIM. I KNOW I DID SOME FOR YOU BEFORE WITHOUT ANY LUCK! SPENT GOOD DAY AT NSDAR LIB. ON THIS PROJECT BUT I OFFERED TO PAY HIM FOR HIS KINDNESSES AND HE PREFERRED GOING THROUGH DAR BOOKS, ETC.

D. I EVEN PHONED LUELLA ELDRIDGE OUT IN SILVER SPRING, MD. BECAUSE NO PHONE BILL ON THIS ONE. ENCLOSED COPIES FROM SOME OF HER DATA. THIS IS NOT YOUR LINE SINCE YOU WILL NOTE ALL FROM CAPE COD AND NONE VENTURED INTO NEW YORK STATE AS FAR AS I CAN TELL!

E. So, Marian, I tried to have him answer your questions but not much success. Quess we should be grateful for his help. But still go along more or less with your Conn. Source!

F. The rough notes on yellow sheets-- My husband helped me so he jotted down books he studied with no success in line with your families! Also some notes my writing but wanted you to glance through. PLEASE RETURN THE YELLOW SHEETS ALSO AND WILL SEND ALONG TO F. DOHERTY.

I AM NATUARALLY DISAPPONTED THAT I COULDN'T COME UP WITH MORE ON YOUR LINE BUT HAVE TRIED VERY HARD. I WILL NOT GIVE UP AND SOME DAY WHEN YOU GATHER MORE FROM YOUR CONN. GEN. MAIL ALONG TO ME AND POSSIBLY WE CAN APPROACH THROUGH ONE OF THE OTHER LINE BESIDE ELDREDGE, ETC. THERE WAS A BOOK ON ELDRED BUT NONE IN CONNECTION WITH YOURS AND BELIEVE I STUDIED BEFORE FOR YOU.

Elisha Eldridge notes:

Aldridge, Elisha m. Mary Wheadon 27 Feb 1777 - Branford, CT Church records, Vol.I,p.59.

Eldridge, Elisha d. 1 Dec 1841 Lansingburg, NY; bur. Lansingburg Village Cemty.

Lansingburg Historian Frances D. Broderick
Troy Daily Whig, 20 Dec 1841... Eulogy--few reliable facts
His application for pension, Troy, NY 29 Nov 1841 -

In his application, Elisha said he was 85 yrs. old; the eulogy said he was 87. Eulogy also said he was born in CT; however, have found no proof of that. Have found no proof that any Eldridge family lived in Branford, CT before or during the Revolution, even though Elisha himself referred to Branford as "home." Enlistments in 1774 and 1775.

Family records compiled by Pierre E.(for Eldridge) Haynes supplies exact birthdates of the children, and in the case of Clark Eldridge, the place of birth....Dover, Dutchess Co.NY.

US Census 1810-1830 lists Elisha Eldridge in Shandaken Twp. Ulster Co.

Early Settlers of Beekman Patent, by Frank J. Doherty - Elisha Eldridge enlisted as minute man 3 Aug 1776, age 24, b. in RI, a shoemaker and a volunteer. He was 5' 10" with a pale complexion, light eyes and hair.

Unplublished information from F.J. Doherty shows other evidence of an Elisha Eldridge in Beekman Patent 1770's into 1790's. A Clark Eldridge in Beekman Patent records also. (Clark Elderitsh and Catharina Richter bap. son Wilhelmus 2 May 1786, Columbia, Kinderhook Dutch Ref. Church.)

ELISHA ELDRIDGE ; poss. B: 1756

[Application for Pension Renssalaer Co. NY - 1841, Elisha claimed to be 85 years old. His obituary and some other records record suggest that he was 87 years old at the time of his death. NSDAR has accepted the date of 21 Aug 1756 as his birthdate, but no confirmation of this has been found.) As of this writing, NSDAR will no longer accept Elisha Eldridge as a veteran of the Revolutionary War, because no proof exsists that he served 6 months.

D: 01 Dec 1841 @ Lansingburg,NY

[Affadavit accompanying the application. Is buried in the Lansingburg Village Cemetary with at least 35 other Revolutionary veterans.]

M: 27 Feb 1777 to Mary Wheadon @ Branford, Conn.

[Branford Congregational Church records (1,111); Elisha's named spelled "Aldridge." Mary - bap.1 Aug 1756 @ Branford, Conn. according the the same Church records (1,6). (P.E. Haynes adds in his notes she was probably b.13 Jun 1756)
Mary - D: aft. 1830 Ulster Co. - see 1830 cns.
or 1824 (34?) @ Woodstock, from PEH records.]

Everything we know about Elisha comes from the Branford Church Records; his application for Pension in Renssalaer Co.NY 29 Nov 1841; and the obituary which appeared in the Troy Daily Whig and as well as a biography of his daughter Nancy, containing references to her family--both of which have many obvious errors.

From the pension application, it appears that in 1874 he left Branford where he was living and went to Groton, MA where he enlisted as a Minute Man under Captain Luke Duly in Col. Jonathan Ward's regiment. In his words, "As soon as the alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton, we immediately took the line of march and arrived in Lexington as the British commenced the retreat to Boston." When his enlistment expired (about 3 months), he reenlisted in the same company. They went to Cambridge, and at the Battle of Bunker Hill , his regiment was situated on Prospect Hill. At the end of the second enlistment, he enlisted with Capt. Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men, went to Roxbury where they built a fort and spent the winter. He was promoted to orderly sergeant.

"At the evacuation of Boston," he claimed, "our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broadside of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor, several of our men being cut down.

"Soon after this engagement, my enlistment expired and upon being discharged, I went home (note that Branford was 'home') to Branford. I again (1776) enlisted under Captain Samuel Parker in Col. Russell's regiment at Branford....served 18 months, then obtained a substitute to complete his 3 year enlistment. It appears he may have left the fighting in order to get married.

P.E.Haynes says Elisha and Mary were forced to elope, because her family were loyalists and disapproved to his revolutionary activities. He also says that the Whedons moved about that time to Nova Scotia. This may be true as Mary's mother sold land she had inherited from her mother in April 1775; and the family dropped abruptly out of the Branford Congregational Church records.

It appears that Mary and Elisha were still in CT in 1780 when their son Whedon was born, according to Whedon himself in the 1850 census. By 1884, the family was living in NY, because Clark Eldridge claimed in the 1850 census to have been born in NY. P.E. Haynes says he was born in Dutchess Co.,NY and gives an exact date, which he may have found on a gravestone, since his notes show that he had found Clark's grave.

State of New York

"On this 29 day of November AD 1841 personally appeared before me Henry V.W.Maten, one of the Justices of the Justices Court of the city of Troy (being a court of record) Elisha Eldridge as resident of Lansingburg, NY aged 85 years, who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Pension Act of Congress passed July 7, 1822. That in 1771 I resided in the town of Branford, Conn. from which place I went to Groton, Mass. and enlisted as a Minute Man under Captain Duly in Colonel Ward's Regiment. As soon as the alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton we immediately took the line of march and arrived at Lexington just as the British commenced the retreat to Boston. About this time my enlistment expired and I reenlisted in the same Company for three months. Went to Cambridge and at the Battle of Bunker Hill our Regiment was situated on Prospect Hill. On expiration of the three months service I reenlisted in Capt. Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men and went to Roxbury where we built a fort and took up our winter quarters. Was here promoted to Orderly Sargeant.

At the evacuation of the city of Boston our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broad side of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor several of our men being cut down. Soon after this engagement my enlistment expired and upon being discharged I went home to Branford. I again enlisted under Captain Sam Parker, Col. Russell's Regiment at Branford, CT. I served only a short part of this enlistment obtaining as a substitute Asha Bull, when I was discharged. (signed) Elisha Eldridge.

Sworn and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

(signed H.V.W. Masten, Justice of the Justices Court, City of Troy, N.Y.
Attested by William Hazen, Clerk of Court (Court Seal)

An affidavit of Alfred Seaman accompanying the claim says he was Captain of a Company of State Militia at Lansingburg, NY in 1841 and buried the said Elisha Eldridge with "full military honors" as a Revolutionary Soldier.

There is also a copy of the marriage certificate of the said Elisha Eldridge and Mary Wheadon on file, said marriage having been performed by Rev. Philemon Robbins of the First Congregational Church of Branford, Conn. Feb. 27, 1777.

The Pension office also supplied a certified copy of the above information.

No Eldridge [in Dunkin Store records] "in relationship" to my lines after 1795.

From research done by Frank J. Doherty in the Beekman Patent, a section of early Dutchess Co., it appears that there was a family of Eldridges in that part of Dutchess Co. c.1770 to 1795, including at least one Elisha, a Clark Eldridge (an older man than our Elisha's son) and others; but a positive relationship is impossible to establish at this time. Nancy Eldridge, b. 1794, claimed to have been born in Dutchess Co. NY. according to the Renssalaer Co.NY 1855 census.

Elizabeth Eldridge Quinlon, in the 1855 Sullivan Co.NY census, claimed to have been born in Green Co.NY 1796. I have read that Lexington in Green Co. was called Woodstock at one time. PEH references Woodstock.

Elisha and family were living in Ulster Co. Shandacken Twp. 1810, 1820 and 1830, according to the census. Ulster Co.in the Revolution by Ruth P. Heigred lists Elisha Eldridge, b. 1756; d. 1 Dec 1841 age 86; m. Mary Whedon. Ulster Republican.

After Mary died, Elisha moved to Lansingburg, NY to live with his unmarried daughter Nancy. Nancy's biography mentions that her parents were members of the Dutch Reformed church. His obituary/eulogy describes him as moral person, a true patriot and a vivid teller of old war stories.

Lansingburg Historian Frances D. Broderick
Troy Daily Whig, 20 Dec 1841... Eulogy--few reliable facts
His application for pension, Troy, NY 29 Nov 1841 -

In his application, Elisha said he was 85 yrs. old; the eulogy said he was 87. Eulogy also said he was born in CT; however, have found no proof of that. Have found no proof that any Eldridge family lived in Branford, CT before or during the Revolution, even though Elisha himself referred to Branford as "home." Enlistments in 1774 and 1775.

Family records compiled by Pierre E.(for Eldridge) Haynes supplies exact birthdates of the children, and in the case of Clark Eldridge, the place of birth....Dover, Dutchess Co.NY.
